Diversity Book Club Next Discussion February 23-12PM Lakeside Room

War and immigration topic of next installment of the Diversity Book Club Discussion

A young boy is separated from his family when, to save his life, his mother puts him on a Kindertransport train out of Nazi-occupied Austria to England. A young girl is separated from her mother at the U.S. border after fleeing for their lives from El Salvador in 2019. Weaving the past with the present, The Wind Knows My Name tells the gripping survival story of two children in search of family and home.

The Wind Knows My Name by critically acclaimed author Isabel Allende is the next installment of the Spring 2025 season of the Diversity Book Club. The discussion will be held at noon on Feb. 23, 2025 in the Toppie Bates Lakeside room at St. James' Episcopal Church, Skaneateles. All are welcome to attend even if you have not read the book.

The Diversity Book Club continues through the Spring 2025 with the selections on the reverse side. Questions: Judy Holmes judyholmes76@gmail.com or Meg Osborne mhosborne7@gmail.com.
